Private Full Day Kruger Safari

Full Day Safari Itinerary

Your private safari begins with collection from your lodge, guest house, or another pre-arranged meeting point within 5km of Hoedspruit. From there, you will travel to Kruger National Park for a full day of wildlife viewing with your guide. During the morning, you will stop at a scenic lookout point for a relaxed coffee break before continuing your game drive through the park. Around midday, you will stop at one of Kruger's main rest camps for lunch at a restaurant. After lunch, your safari continues through the afternoon before exiting the park and returning you to the same location where you were collected.

Included: Bottled water, a scenic morning coffee stop, full day safari on a private open safari vehicle, qualified and experienced guide.

Excluded: Kruger National Park conservation fees, lunch at rest camp restaurant, additional snacks or beverages, personal purchases and guide gratuity, which is optional but always appreciated.
